The land-grabbers are still busy in the county and applications have been filed in a number of cases where property has been discovered to be delinquent. The applications are made in the name of M. Frequently, however, no purchaser appears and the property is knocked down to the State. It is then held two years and applications may be made by any outsider. The owner is then notified, and, if, after four months following this notice he fails to appear, the applications have been delivered to the sheriff to be served on the owners. The great difficulty, however, lies in the fact that the ownership has in many cases changed and the names appearing on the books is not that of the real owner. All of these applications are

Dyspepsia Will Se Driven Off the Earth.

The great and effective work of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is no longer confined to America. They are being used now all over the world, for their faine has spread throughout foreign countries and they cure dyspepsia in all londs and ill climates just as well as they do at home. In fact, surroundings and conditions never interfere with the successful work of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, not even the conditions of the stomach and digest the food that the bad stomach cannot digest, and permit that organ to do just as it pleases, rest up, take a vagation, get well or what-not. The stomach however, always makes it a point to get well when it has nothing elss to do. That's what stomachs always have done and will continue to do when they have the opportunity.

A prominent Detroit physician says: It prescribe Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for all cases of stomach troube. I have tried many prescriptions, including a number of my own, but find nothing that gives such universal relief as this rome.

THE WANTS A WIFE NOW

Young Woman's Sad Experience in a Criminal Court May Develop Thrilling Romance.

YOUNG MAN ASKS HER HAND

He Is a Canadian Farmer, Who Owns Much Land and Reads the Newspapers.

What promises to develop a pretty little omance of the great Northwest was It all came about through a letter he the Northwest Territory, who is looking for a wife, and whose attention has been directed to a charming young woman of incident which brought her within the grasp of the criminal law.

The young woman is Miss Florence Pil grim, a former choir singer in the Brick Church, on Fifth Avenue. Some time ago she lost her position through illness, and she and her mother strove in vain to maintain themselves decently with needlework. Two weeks before Christmas, when penniless, she secured some goods at a department store on a forged order. She was arrested. While in the Tombs awaiting trial she saved most of her prison fare for her mother, who visited being made known to the complainants, they refused to push the charge, and pleaded for a suspenision of sentence.

Judge McMahon, when the case was tried, suspended sentence, and a well-known woman missionary secured fair employment for both the girl and her mother.

question—hence his letter to Judge MeMahon, under date of January 22, 1904.

"To Judge McMahon, Now York:

"Sir,—Having read an Item in the papers about one Miss Florence Pilgrim, about her net of theft with regard to the welfare of her poor old mother, I am very sorry to hear of cases of theft under such circumstances.

"How is it so many of our young people, and especially those living in the cities, are compelled to undergo such degrading schemes in order to get enough food to eat, and then not enough of the right kind of food to sustain enough nourishment to keep their bodies properly warm? I must thank you most heartily for the kind way in which you have dealt with the case. I am sure the young lady bears a very good ghatacter, and I think the public will agree with me that the young lady is not to blame for the unlawful act she has committed under such very trying circumstances.

"Out here in the Northwest Territory, Canada, where peace and plenty abound, and where the people are a good, Godfearing class, we don't hear of any one single case of aucheacts. Not that I am giving the credit to the Canadian laws, but that out here in the country, where we can have everything we want to eat, drink and wear, and where peace and enloyment abound, there is no feed of such unlawful deeds.

"Weil, your honor, before I close this letter I must let you know who is writing to you as regards this case. Well, it is a young bachelor, agei twenty-two years, the owner of one-half section of land in the vicinty of Elmore, Assinabola, who is in search of a wife, and I wish, your ald in helping me to start a correspondence with Miss Florence Pilgrim, as I wish to get a beloved wife of this stamp, I can assure you she will have a good home, both for herself and her mother; so thanking you for the kind way in which you have dealt with her case, I now close.

"Hoping this letter finds you all right and meets with approval as regards welfare, so hoping to hear from you by the
